The Chroni

of Henry the fift : wit at Agin Court in Fran

Ancient E

Enter King Henry, Exeter and other At

Exet

SHall I call in th'Ambaſſado

King. Not yet my couſin

Of ſome ſerious matters touch

Byſh. God and his Angels g

And make you long become it

King. Sure we thanke you :

Why the Law Salique which th

Or ſhould or ſhould not ſtop i

And God forbid my wiſe and l

That you ſhould faſhion, fram

For God doth know how man

Shall drop their blood, in appr

Of what your reuerence ſhall i

Therefore take heede how you

How you awake the ſleeping ſw

We charge you in the name of

After this coniuration, ſpeake

And we will iudge, note, and b

That what you ſpeake, is waſh

As ſin in baptiſme.